Summer 2011 Youth Rowing Camp

Left: St. Ursula Academy racing in the Henley Women's Regatta in Henley-on-Thames, England

Right: St. John's Jesuit racing in the Head of the Charles Regatta in Boston, Massachusetts

The Toledo Rowing Club's Youth Rowing Camp is a learn-to-row program designed to introduce the sport of rowing to youth ages 11-14 (11-year-olds must be entering 6th grade). During the two-week session, participants will progress quickly from learning the basics of rowing technique and training to rowing in team boats and racing on the water. Participation in this camp is a fun and relaxed way to get involved in this wonderful team sport and to be a part of the rich tradition of the St. Ursula & St. John's Jesuit Crews and the Toledo Rowing Club.

No prior rowing or athletic experience is necessary, and all equipment will be provided.
